Lithotech Labels Awards ROTOCON Order for Two ROTOCONTROL RSD Finishing Machines

Lithotech Labels provides a total range of functional and decorative labels, as well as a variety of labelling systems

CAPE TOWN, South Africa (November 21, 2012) – ROTOCON today announced the receipt of a purchase order from Lithotech Labels for two ROTOCONTROL RSD 340mm web width die cutting, slitting/rewinding finishing machines.

Lithotech Labels is a division of Bidvest Paperplus (Pty) Ltd, a division of the Bidvest Group of companies, and provides a total range of functional and decorative labels including self-adhesive labels for addressing envelopes, jars, bottles and punnets. Their solutions include the supply of specialised equipment that is associated with the use of labels, such as bar-code printers and scanners, as well as tagging systems for the manufacturing, industrial or retail sectors.

"The pre-sale discussions and product recommendation was a team effort involving myself, and Patrick and Pascal Aengenvoort of ROTOCON," comments Michael Aengenvoort, Business Development Manager of ROTOCONTROL. "We are honoured to be awarded this considerable order from Lithotech Labels, a prestigious converter in South Africa."
